KIMBER VOM RIVERWOODS

A pedigree chart for Kimber vom Riverwoods. The name is on the left, connected by a horizontal line to a vertical line. This vertical line splits into two diagonal lines that meet a horizontal line. From this horizontal line, two diagonal lines branch out to the right, each meeting another horizontal line. Each of these two horizontal lines then splits into two diagonal lines that meet a final horizontal line. This structure results in two main branches, each of which further divides into two sub-branches, for a total of four potential offspring.
