

English Setter
Female

A blank template for a dichotomous key. The structure consists of a central vertical line that branches out into two main paths. Each path has a series of horizontal lines for text, with the lines branching out further to the right. The background is a light blue color with a repeating pattern of small, stylized wavy lines. The overall design is clean and professional, suitable for educational or scientific use.